GOOD GOLF

Tourney Started While Fog
Lay Over Course

Yesterday morning at the Dixie Course the student met the Staff in what was probably the greatest golf match that has ever been played over that course, and the undergraduates were decisively defeated. It was another case of experience versus brawn in which the former as usual, was victorious. Outdriven time after time, in length, but hardly in direction, the staff showed themselves the superior of the students in the finer points of the game, and it was around the green that the students proved to be woefully weak.

On arriving at the course the players found it completely enveloped by a dense fog. Undaunted, however, play was commenced and Percy Costigan and Dr. Lamb teeing up for the first drive, Costigan having the honour, drove a beautiful ball, but unfortunately the gallery were unable to fully appreciate it, as no sooner had it left the clubhouse than it became lost in the fog.

This inclemency of the weather, however, was only temporary and before the last couple had driven off, a nicer day could not have been desired.

The matches, in almost every case, were keenly contested and a large number finished on the home green. Probably the most noticeable incident in the above matches, was when Dr. Martin holed out his approach shot at the 15th green—thus gaining three points for his side.

One of the outstanding points of the contest was the match between Prof. Sinclair Laird and Buzz Hayes. Although the latter put up a splendid exhibition of golf, he was forced to admit defeat. Prof. Laird turning in the lowest score of the day a beautiful 77.

The students want to take this opportunity of thanking the staff for their extreme kindness in having them as their guests at the Course for the day. The opportunities afforded the students closer contact with their professors, than that which exists in the class room, are rare, and these occasions do much to promote that good-fellowship between teacher and pupil, which is essential to the welfare of McGill.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR B.W. & F. CLUB

Practices to Begin On Next
Monday

At five o'clock yesterday in the Union Ball Room, the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Club held the meeting which was postponed on last Monday. F. Hovos called the meeting to order with about fifty members present; the purpose of which was to fill three vacancies, those of Secretary-Manager and Fencing Representative. Nominations for the position of Secretary-Manager then began, and J. Clement, last year's Intercollegiate wrestling champion in the 135 lb. class was elected. Chas. Fullerton from Medicine who has been with the Club three years, was elected Assistant-Manager. One of last year's Intercollegiate fencing team, H. I. Silverstone was elected Fencing Representative by acclamation. Hovos then pointed out that practices would start next week, and urged the men to be on hand for the first practice. Boxing practice will be held on every Tuesday and Thursday at five o'clock in Molson Hall Gym, and wrestling and fencing in the Union Ball Room on Monday and Thursday at the same hour. The president also reminded the men that all those who had put in their names for pictures could obtain same at Notman's studio. Those who won medals or shields in last year's assault-at-arms were asked to report to Major Forbes for same. Prospects this year are very bright for the club declared the president, especially in the fencing department, and the club hopes to have a whole-hearted support of the students in the coming year. The meeting then adjourned.

W. R. CROCKER WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Morrice Gains Grand Applause From Spectators

GALLERY OF 500

Remarkable Tennis In Tournament Finals

Before a gallery of five-hundred spectators the McGill Annual Tennis Tournament Finals were played yesterday morning on the University Courts.

Willard Crocker won the championship, thus gaining possession of the Martin Cup. The thirty-two games that he played with his worthy opponent, Morrice, were fast and spectacular, being finished within an hour and a half. No aces were scored by either Crocker nor Morrice throughout the three sets; this was exceptional. Although Crocker's serve was a powerful one, Morrice ably snapped back over the net placing it to the back of the court to advantage. Morrice, whose serve was seemingly slow put a wicked twist to his ball which was not so easy to handle. It gave Crocker no trouble, however, as he returned it in swift fashion often using his accurate backhand stroke. In the first set Morrice made two double faults in service. Crocker made one rouble fault in the second set and two in the third.

Morrice played well throughout the entire struggle but Crocker played better. The former fought hard, showing excellent sportsmanship. His broad smile, which is so pleasing, won for him the admiration and support of the spectators. Though he lost many points he was well applauded because he had almost equally deserved them. It is not frequent that the loser has the moral support of the crowd. Morrice must have felt the influence for after losing the first set to Crocker, 6-2, he rallied in the second set. In the following game, the points were reduced to deuce six times, Morrice and Crocker regaining the advantage alternately, Morrice succeeding in rolling up the games to 5-all. The gallery's interest was intense as to who would take the set. Crocker regained his form and succeeded in taking two love games from Morrice. The second set went to Crocker, 7-5.

In the semi-finals Morrice eliminated Wright due to his greater skill in placing the ball where he wanted it. Crocker played havoc with Morrice in somewhat similar fashion. He drew the latter to the net and then placed the ball behind him with a lightning forehand drive impossible to recover. The third set was led by Morrice, who won the first two games. Six swift games followed, Crocker leading 5-3. Then again, as in the previous set, Morrice rallied laboriously, making the score read 5-all. The crowd was electrified by the remarkable playing in the game which followed. Crocker continually smashed the ball with one of his forehand drives or a backhand to the edge of the court. Morrice was there to meet the ball, returning it like a ball, seemingly unrecoverable. These returns were an ever increasing

TORONTO MAN CANNOT SEE BUT VICTORY

Coach Campbell Brings An
Untried Team

FEW VETERANS

Outcome of Today's Game
Is Predicted

When asked by a "Daily" reporter, "are you going to win the game to-morrow," with the optimism characteristic of a Queen city resident, coach Coryell of the "Varsity" team answered: "we certainly are." Speaking about his team in general he compared them to the McGill squad in that they are "young and green" for the most part. The greatest percentage of last year's players graduated last spring, leaving their position to be filled by new men.

The Varsity coach while admitting that most of his men were untried in intercollegiate struggles contended that they would make a showing worthy of the example set by their comrades in former years. He looks forward with more than ordinary interest to tomorrow's game because of the atmosphere of uncertainty that enshrouds it. The quality of the Kingston team is well known because of its exploits last year, that of McGill is only partly known, but the strength of the Varsity team is a thing to be debated on until after the contest tomorrow. He expressed regret at the injuries incurred by the Red and White players which would probably incapacitate Philpotts and Hanna for the game.

The following was given as the most likely line-up: on the back division Snyder, Trimble, Plantan, and Uren; Bartlett at Ferguson on flying wing; Pequent at quarter; Weber, snap-back, Snider and Stringer on the inside. Westman, H. Stallery and Chaffe at middle positions. Weaver and Campbell on outside wings; and King, Hames, Soames and Truax whose positions are not certain. In all there were twenty-one players came down from Toronto.

Coach Coryell seemed calmly confident of the outcome of the game. "In any case," he said, "we are always assured of a good game and a hard fight at McGill."

At 10 P. M. none of the Blue and White players were to be seen at the Mount Royal Hotel where they have taken up their abode while in the city. All were hustled away to bed for a good night's rest. A few loyal supporters roamed around the Rotunda, while the Varsity coach sat there and chatted with a graduate of the U. of T.

WESTERN BRETHREN IN "GET-TOGETHER"

Over Fifty Members Attend
Initial Meeting

The Union Cafeteria was the scene of a very successful smoker last night when the Western Club held its first meeting of the session. Sir Arthur Currie the honorary president was to be the guest of honor but unfortunately a last moment emergency supervened and he was not able to come. About fifty members congregated in the spacious dining room to hear their representatives speak.

The president, in a few words, welcomed the newcomers to the club as well as the former ones from the sonny west. Errol Amaron, President of the Students' Council stated his idea of the advantages of coming from the West. He himself is a Westerner. Discussion was brought up as to the form of future meeting and a committee of men:

H. R. L. Davis—B. C.
Murphy—Alberta.
M. Lloyd—Sask.
Fisher—Manitoba.

G. Warren, Vice-Pres. was delegated to look after the entertainment of the club meeting. Lunches will be held on Saturday, and prominent Western business men of this city will be the guest-speakers. A dance, will be arranged for it possible in conjunction with the Maritime Club. W. Crocker and Johnny Walker furnished the music of the evening.

Last Week's Sportman.
The telephone subscriber who got three wrong numbers in succession took the thing philosophically and described himself as an "also-ran."

MONTREAL, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1923.

MCGILL VERSUS TORONTO VARSITY

The McGill Senior football team will be tested for the second time this season, when it meets the representatives of the University of Toronto at a quarter past two to-day. The Red and White players were severely tried last Saturday, when they clashed with the players from Kingston, and although they did not register a victory, they certainly were not found wanting.

A week has gone and though the period is short it may mean much to a football squad. And the past seven days have meant much to the team. There were faults in the opening game of the schedule. It is only natural that there should be and no one will deny the existence of slight imperfections. But a week has passed and Coach Shaughnessy and his assistants have spent much time in correcting, where correcting was needed. From this angle, the McGill aggregation is undoubtedly improved. Last Saturday many of the men were untied. To-day a tested squad will trot on the field and it is safe to conclude that the upholders of the honour of the Blue and White will be worried severely by the onslaught of the Red and White.

But the passing of the days has brought its unfortunate features, for some of the men have been unable to practice, owing to physical disability. Ill luck seems to be met at every turn by a few, who don the moleskins for Old McGill, and according to the semi-official final reports there are several of our best men, who will not be seen in action to-day. Good substitutes have been unearthed, however. The team will have lost none of its speed and spirit and the crowd should be treated to a great exhibition.

To-day's test is a crucial one. A victory will give McGill a fighting chance but a defeat means a setback, of a very serious nature. The rooters and the spectators on the north side of the field can do much to help bring about the desired outcome. The McGill men on the gridiron need the support of their fellow students on the side lines. They need it no matter which way the score stands. The rooters have been criticized. They have been charged with apathy and a general lack of enthusiasm and 'pep.' To-day they will be given a chance to vindicate themselves. Let us see the fighting spirit in the crowds that will fill the bleachers and reserved seats, and not only in the fighting ranks on the field.

CONDENSED COMMENT

For many years there has been an exceptional feeling of friendship between McGill and Toronto in the realm of sport. On the field, on the track and on the gymnasium floor representatives of the two great universities have always had, almost without exception, nothing but the most cordial feelings for one another. Last night, the Blue and White football men arrived in the city and it is with all sincerity that the Daily welcomes them to McGill. Their stay is short but we hope that they will have nothing but pleasant recollections, when they return to the Queen City.

METALLURGICAL SOCIETY

The Mining and Metallurgical Society held its first meeting of the year, in the Chemistry Building last Thursday. The meeting, which was attended, was called to order by last year's president. Those nominated were:—Hon. Pres. Dr. J. B. Porter and Dr. A. Stanfield.
President: A. K. Muir.
Vice-Pres. C. Gordon.
Sec. Treas. C. H. Cotter.

ins pace. At the conclusion of each point which first gave Morrice the advantage and then Crocker the gallery burst into spontaneous applause.

The two games following this unusually strenuous one were taken by Crocker. He made it a love game so as to leave no doubt in anyone's mind. But Morrice came up smiling. The final came to an end quickly, Crocker ending up the last set 7-5.

R.V.C. TENNIS FINALS TO BE PLAYED SOON

Close Games in Singles Tournament

THIRD ROUND

Miss Stocking, Miss De Blois, Miss Silver Winners

Three matches were played off yesterday in the third round of the R. V. C. tennis tournament. They all proved to be interesting games and the players showed up well.

Miss P. Murray was beaten by Miss E. Stocking by a score of 9-3. At the beginning of the match the play was steady and fairly even. The first two games fell to Miss Stocking after some close play, and Miss Murray won the third. Miss Stocking took the fourth game with apparent ease after which Miss Murray rallied and won the following two, bringing the score to three all. The next game proved to be the most closely contested of the tournament; rallies were frequent and both competitors played with accuracy. After a number of deuces the game finally went to Miss Stocking. The rest of the tournament Miss Stocking had her own way, her splendid serving and accurate placing giving her the match although Miss Murray put up a very good fight.

As winner of last year's R. V. C. tennis championship, Miss Stocking is drawing much attention. She is playing with her usual good form and her opponents find her every bit as formidable as she was last year. If not more so. The winner of the match between E. Cameron and I. Higginson will be the next to meet Miss Stocking and the survivor of that will then have reached the semi-finals.

Miss A. Silver defeated Miss P. Mullin with a score of 3-1. This match also was well contested and good tennis was shown. Miss Silver's play was very steady throughout, and her serving was the feature of the match. At the end of the third game Miss Mullin was leading by two games to one, but Miss Silver pulled up and won the next three. Miss Mullin won two more games after which Miss Silver brought her score up to eight, defeating her opponent after several hard games.

The most exciting match of the day was that between Miss Cochran and Miss Blois, the latter was the victor in an 8-5 score. Practically every game was won only after a hard struggle. Both players were very steady and exhibited some brilliant shots. The spectators were kept guessing right up until the very last game and it was this which was probably the most closely contested of the tournament.

At one time the score was 4-2 in Miss Cochran's favour after which Miss De Blois brought it to 6-4 in her own favour. Miss Cochran won the next game and Miss De Blois won the tournament by taking the next two.

Miss De Blois and Miss Cochran are both new comers to McGill and have proved to be very able tennis players. It is expected that Miss De Blois will give a very good account of herself to-day when she meets Miss C. Robertson, the R. V. C. tennis champion of 1921-22.

Every endeavour is to be made to have the semi-finals played off by Tuesday at the latest and the finals by Wednesday and it is to be hoped that the weather will remain favourable.

Cause and Effect.

According to a morning paper there is a serious shortage of ice in this country. This is attributed to much of it being turned sour by the recent thundery weather.

The Answer, Dear Etta, I cannot compose.

The question was what?—"God only knows."

Pardon me for my seeming neglect but my machine hates to work at night.

All men hailing from the townships are requested to turn out as plans will be made for a big year.

MCGILL RIFLE CLUB

The usual week end practise of the McGill Rifle Club will be held tomorrow at Pointe aux Trembles. All members of the Club and those wishing to participate in this sport are requested to meet at Strathcona Hall, at 8:45 a. m.

ROOTERS' BAND

All Bandsmen are reminded to bring McGill sweaters and rooters caps and be at the Union at 1:15 sharp in the Music Room.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STUDENTS' SOCIETY

As the annual meeting of the Students' Society will be held on Wednesday, October 17th, 1923, at 11 a. m., all lectures in the University will be cancelled from that hour to one p. m. in accordance with the usual practice and under the authority of Corporation.

TEAM CHOSEN FOR THE NINETEENTH

Track Men for Toronto Meet Selected Last Night

The McGill Intercollegiate Track Team was chosen last night. Seventeen men are sure of places, while one more is to be selected from a group of four men. Patterson, Michaels and Walker are the men for the sprints, while Walker, Legg, Tait and Hurd are contestants in the quarter and half miles. The millers are well represented by Ruben and Hart, with Grimson and Wiggins as the ambitious boys who go the three mile distance. Connolly and Pierce are running the hurdles, while Gaboury is pole-vaulter. Kennedy is jumping again and also handling the weights with Jardine, Amazon and Friedman as companions among men. Although many familiar names are missing from this list due to last year's graduation, the team this year is well balanced, and composed of hard working men who are expected to continue McGill's victories of the past years. There is one more man to be added to this list, chosen from Rutherford, McDiarmid, McGerrigle and Forrest.

Training table starts on Monday for the members of the team who have just one week before they try their strength with Varsity in Toronto.

JUNIORS VS. QUEBEC PRECEDES BIG GAME

In preparation for the game today with the Quebec Swimming and Rowing Club, the McGill Juniors had a light practice with the Montreal High School squad at ten o'clock yesterday morning. Coach Shaughnessy watched the play and corrected the mistakes as they occurred. Since Joe Cameron and "Bruds" Bozin have been called to the Seniors' training-table, the Juniors have been considerably weakened in the backfield. The Quebec squad arrived early this morning, and their line-up will be chosen from the following players.

Zinck, Bignall, Burstall, Turner, Cream, MacCauley, Devine, Wiggs, Humphrey, Scott, Beattie, O'Donnell, McWilliams.

Owing to the keen competition for several of the positions on the Junior squad, the "Daily" was unable to get the list of players starting today at a late hour last night.

"DAILY" APPLICANTS

The lists of applicants for positions as reporters on the Daily Staff continues to increase in length and competition for situations is keener than at any time for years past. Only a few days remains before the permanent staff will be chosen and assignments made for the different nights. The Daily is in a position this year to select the staff with discrimination and thus it is hoped that the quality of the news will be raised. Application may still be made, and anyone desiring to try for a place on the staff should see the assignment Editor or the Managing Editor in the Daily office at 1 p. m. any day.

The Assignment Editor is anxious to see those applying for places as soon as possible with regard to ascertaining the nights most suitable for assignment in the different cases. Will the following please get in touch with Ted Newton at the McGill Daily office at 1.00 p. m. to-day or phone Up. 6229 at any other time.

ROOTERS BAND WILL BEAT PAST EFFORTS

Out to beat last Saturday's good showing, the band strengthened by further practices, will head the Thundering Thousand in the march to the Stadium. The band will meet in the Union music Room at 1:15 sharp and all members are urged by the Bandmaster to be on hand at that hour with McGill sweaters and rooters caps.

The band has several new selections including the New McGill March Song composed by Willard Crocker and several of the latest popular pieces. The McGill March Song will be sung at half-time, and Rooters are asked to bring it along, as it is published again in to-day's "Daily." Bandmaster Gagnier will be back from Quebec and under his able leadership much can be expected of the band as their bit toward a winning effort.

TWO NEW RECORDS ARE SET ON MCGILL TRACK

Three Mile Mark Lowered and Broad Jump Distance Increased—Kennedy Individual Star, Winning Four Events—Patterson and Michael Divided Sprints—Legg Took Quarter and Half, Showing Fine Form—Officials and Detailed Results.

Two records were broken at the Inter-Faculty Track Meet yesterday afternoon which was won by Medicine with a total of fifty-three points. Science came second with fifty-two points, followed by Arts, Law and Commerce, with thirty-five, twenty-two and six points respectively. The points were awarded to the first four men in each event, who received five, four, two and one points according to the order in which they finished.

New marks were established in the three-mile run and the running broad jump. "Rex" Wiggins covered his own record by twelve and one-fifth seconds while W. R. Kennedy added five and a half inches to his own distance for the jump. Both men received well-deserved applause for their splendid performances and both showed excellent form. Kennedy broke his own record with a jump of 21 feet 9 inches, and then in his next jump he made the splendid mark mentioned above. Wiggins left all his competitors behind him after the first few laps, romped around the track until the bell lap, and then made a heroic sprint to the tape worthy of a 100-yard man.

Glorious weather prevailed throughout the afternoon, although if anything it erred on the side of being a little too warm; the air lacked that tang of late autumn which puts so much pep into athletes. All apprehensions of uncertainty were dispelled about ten o'clock in the morning, when the heavy fog, which had lasted through the night and the early hours, lifted and was succeeded by bright sunshine. The contrast between the conditions yesterday and those prevalent on the day of the big intercollegiate track meet at the Stadium last fall was remarkable, and is a good example of the freakish nature of Canadian climate. On that day the temperature was very low, and the snow which had fallen the previous night covered those parts of the track where the influence of the sun had not been very strong; the runners were forced to take refuge in the warmth of the field house for the conclusion of their races, and in the three-mile event, one of the McGill men his sweater for the first few laps; the officials were clad in heavy or fur overcoats, and the spectators stamped their feet in an attempt to resist the cold. Yesterday the scene was different; the track was dry and fast, the competitors had little difficulty in warming up, and many among both officials and onlookers were seen without the protection of even fall coats.

The attendance at the meet was fair, but there was no reason for it not being considerably larger, since the whole university had been granted a holiday for the occasion. In this aspect of the event, too, one could not fail to notice a certain contrast. Although it is true that other track meets have been little better attended, other athletic contests have been. The "Daily" refers to the huge crowds which filled the Stadium on the occasion of the rugby match between McGill and Varsity at the time of the Centennial Reunion. It is remarkable what a contrast in general impressions the size of a crowd makes. These remarks are not meant to infer that the outlook from the Stadium yesterday was not a pleasant one. On the one hand could be seen the Pathological Building which now overshadows the field house, even though the latter has a spacious addition. Looking in the other direction one could see Fletcher's Field, which provides recreation for the tired Montrealer in much the same way that the Stadium itself does for the studious undergraduate.

The meet itself was a climax to a day of sport. In the morning, a group of a hundred golfers—professors and students—had held a very successful tournament in which the professors were victorious. About the same time the singles tennis tournament came to an exciting close when Crocker and Morris met on the McGill courts, the former winning after a hard battle. Shortly after two o'clock the crowd began to assemble. The M. S. P. E. arrived in a body; the freshmen were distinctively decorated with bright green bows and loosely worn overshoes. On their arrival they created much amusement by breaking away from their guardians, the sophs, and refusing to obey the rules. They were severely dealt with, however, and order was restored after some lively chases up and down the Stadium steps. Once they had settled down the first race was called.

Hurdles. The first event run was the 120-

and eighteen seconds. Hart kept a steady pace, with Rubin trailing him close until near the end of the bell lap. Then, at the hundred yard mark, Rubin jumped into the lead and finished strong, although the time was fairly slow. Hart took second place, and Fry followed, with Clement taking fourth.

Three Mile Run. The long distance event was a pretty race, and the crowd cheered Wiggins for his fine effort. "Rex" took the lead at the start and never gave it up. He was pressed by Kerr and Grimson for the first few laps, but they gradually fell back until at the end of the second mile Wiggins was leading by three hundred yards. He then lapped several of the more leisurely runners. The time at the commencement of the last mile was ten minutes and thirty-five seconds. Then for three laps Wiggins kept a steady fast pace; as the bell rang for the last lap he gathered speed and held it; then as he rounded into the home stretch the crowd, sensing that a record was in danger, shouted encouragement. "Rex" answered by a wave of arms and then opened up, coming down in front of the stands at a remarkable speed, amidst the storm of applause that burst from the enthusiastic spectators. He had cut twelve seconds from the record, and leaves a mark which will stand for some time. The next three men were Grimson, Kerr and Egerton, all of whom finished strong.

Field Events.

In the broad jump Kennedy excelled himself, and added five and a half inches to his former mark. His first couple of jumps were close to the record; then he jumped twenty-one feet, nine inches, which was a new mark. Later he succeeded in increasing this to the present mark of twenty-two feet two inches. Kennedy also did excellently in the other field events, winning the discus throw, the high jump and the sixteen-pound shot events. He did much to put Medicine out in front, gaining twenty points by his own efforts. The field events were all well-contested, and the new javelin event attracted considerable attention.

STRONG TEAM ARRIVES FROM QUEEN CITY

Snyder, Centre-half Star Will Start

MANY OLD FACES

Al. Young, Out of Game With Broken Leg

Compared with last year's Blue and White team, the rugby representatives of this year are much weaker. Their recent game against the "Old Boys" in Toronto, in which the three best regulars could do was to win by a one point margin, makes things look bad for Varsity. But although Varsity is weaker than last year its team is still a strong one. Warren Snyder in the centre-half position is a stellar player, and around him Coach Corryell hopes to build a strong backfield. In spite of the fact that he has lost Al Young, one of his best hopes when that player broke a bone in his leg, he still has Plaxton and Leg Uren, two recruits of great promise.

It is generally conceded that the McGill line is very strong and if Warren Snyder can be checked, the Red and White have a wonderful opportunity to climb into second place. The Toronto team is fully aware of the situation and are ready to fight a clean hard battle. The following is the Blue and White line-up:
Left-Half Trimble
Centre-Half W. Snyder
Right-Half H. Plaxton
Flying Wing Bartlett
Quarter Pequegnat
Snap Weber
Left-Inside S. Snyder
Right-Inside Hyde
Left-Middle Westman (Capt)
Right-Middle Ferguson
Left-Outside Weaver
Right-Outside Campbell
Subs:—Reid, Uren, Truax, Haines, Chaff, and the Stollery Brothers.

ROOTERS MEET ON CAMPUS 1.15. SHARP

Team Needs Support Of Entire Student Body

The Rooters Club will meet on the campus at 1.15 sharp and will parade up to the stadium lead by Papyrus, the orack English horse, and Barney Google's consistent winner Spark Plug. Sunshine, the ebony hued jockey will ride Sparky. These two famous bits of horseflesh will race at half time. Both horses are of a very nervous temperament, and they must not be kept waiting. In order that everything may run smoothly it is essential that everybody be on time, and of course for the sake of the horses. Papyrus will also be on hand to invoke the aid of Lady Luck.
*Laying by the sale of tickets the Tendering Thousand will be out in full force. The Rooters Club can do a great deal towards winning the game, so everybody out to cheer the team to victory.

WILL BROADCAST ON TODAY'S GAME

Through the courtesy of the McGill Radio Club, arrangements have been made with La Presse to broadcast complete details of today's game. A running story of the game will be broadcasted between concert numbers. This was arranged at the suggestion by Varsity who intend to do the same for us at their home game with McGill on Nov. 10. The Daily will publish the course of next week, further details regarding the broadcasting of the game of Nov. 10.

LINE-UP IS GIVEN OUT FOR TODAY

Hanna and Hughes Will Start.

PHILPOTTS OUT

Queens' Show Keen Interest In Outcome Today.

Optimism in regard to McGill's chances of winning this afternoon is more and more apparent in local rugby circles. Although Philpotts and Selby Cope are definitely out of this game the team is still a very strong one. The infection in Philpotts' mouth has caused one shoulder to stiffen while Selby Cope broke a small bone in his neck. Hanna, however, will be soon in action for the first time in Senior company and his speed and ball-carrying should go a long way toward winning. Hughes is feeling very fit and will do the bulk of the kicking while Little and Baker will flank him on the half line. Mickles will hold the key position and Jack Fife will start at flying wing. Dier and Amaron will share the vacancy created by Selby Cope's absence. The rest of the team will line up as for the Queen's-McGill game last Saturday.

Mr. Shaugnessy does not predict a victory but he says that with the necessary fighting spirit the team has an excellent chance of win. He also reiterated his statement of a week ago last Friday that the rooters had to fight as well as the team and that he expected them to show their appreciation of the players' efforts with their yells.

Yesterday morning the team went through the usual loosening-up exercises and had an hour and a half of "dummy" scrimmaging in which the Senior squad thoroughly rehearsed their signals and practised several new plays which are to be used this afternoon against Varsity. The line-up of the team that starts will be as follows:—

Left Half .. .. Little
Centre Half .. .. Hughes
Right Half .. .. Baker
Flying Wing .. .. Fife
Quarter .. .. Mickles
Snap .. .. McGregor (Capt).

Left Inside .. .. Woodruffe
Right Inside .. .. Starke
Left Middle .. .. Amaron
Right Middle .. .. Manson
Right Outside .. .. Wilson
Subs: Anderson, Newton, Bazem, White, Fife, Dier, "Cam" Cope, Gill.

TERRIBLE FATE OF M.S.P.E. FRESHIES

Eccentric Fashion Display Staged at Stadium

The Second Year Physical Eds. tendered their Freshies a hearty reception throughout Friday.

About two o'clock all Freshies were assembled in the R. N. C. the roll was called and everyone decked out ready for a constitutional. Although the sun was shining brightly, and most people found it rather warm, the Second Year were thoughtful of the freshies, welfare and to prevent the new arrivals from catching colds, saw that they were at least one overcoat. Personal decorations were carried out in green and the style of wearing hats back to front seemed popular. All were then ready for the University Track Meet and marched in double file up University Street to the top of the Stadium. Each Freshie was so taken with the beautiful colouring of Mount Royal that she gazed upon it while walking down the steps backwards. A few refractory ones, in their haste, turned their feet trackwards but the vigilant members of the Second Year immediately rectified this.

At half past seven proceedings were again resumed at the Hostel. After having all cosmetics forcibly removed, the Freshies were blindfolded, given an impetus at the top of the stairs and Gravity did its worst.

The senses of the Freshies, (always supposing they have some) were further delighted by the application of vaseline to mouths, noses, and green paint in the form of an "eye" to necks.

A tonic of hot water and vanilla was then administered to revive their failing spirits and each Freshie was called upon to go through certain rather original setting-up exercises and stunts.

The president gave an interesting talk on the history of the School, after which "freshments and dancing were enjoyed."

BLUE AND WHITE SUPPORTERS HERE

Varsity Team Well Backed By Supporters

On every train Varsity supporters are striking into the city for today's game. Over two hundred and fifty blue and white supporters managed to scrape together the return fare to Montreal. A few fortunate ones come on a free ride, as a result of luck in the numerous class pools. Every class in Varsity is represented by the man or woman who has the good luck to win the pool. The less fortunate ones however always collect at the Union Station to give their team and their luckier class mates a rousing send-off.

The morning train bristled with three whole coaches filled with Blue and White supporters all with hopes for victory in the coming struggle.

Special rates are offered by the rail ways and unless the coffers are extremely low, most students who can, make the trip do so. Considering the long trip it is surprising how many Varsity students make the trip to Montreal. Queen's which is not half the distance away are never represented as well as Varsity. To all indications the Thundering Thousand will have plenty of opposition this afternoon, which should stimulate them to greater efforts.

Toujours la Politesse.

A man who hired a motor-car which had been standing in a garage at Bishop's Street, found a wasp's nest in a corner of the seat. It is reported that after sitting down he rose, politely raised his hat and begged their pardon.

men were thrown heavily to the pavement and one of them is now suffering from concussion of the brain as a result of his part of the fight.

Expensive Building

Temple University lays claims on having one of the finest college buildings in America. The building, Cromwell Hall, will be six stories in height at the time of its completion. It boasts of having, in addition to its large, well equipped gymnasium, a fine swimming pool, class rooms, laboratories, and numerous other additions.

Rooters' Band

More than sixty members of the Syracuse University band were present at the regular rehearsal held in the Trophy Room of the gymnasium last night. The large turnout was very pleasing to those who are backing the movement for a bigger and better band.

OTHER CAMPUSES

Battle Royal

The annual mixer held at the University of Oklahoma recently had several big features. One of these was the "Battle-Royal for All Comers," and the other was the Interfraternity freshman fight. The evening held promise for plenty of excitement and produced it.

Rough on Freshies

Two members of the class of '27 in Columbia University were hurt in a fracas that took place between the yearlings and the Sophomores. The fight took place in one of the streets of the University. These two Fresh-

GENERAL MEETING OF DAILY STAFF

Hints on News Writing Given Reporters.

A general idea of the year's work and of news-getting and news-writing was given at the first general meeting of the Staff of the Daily held in the Editorial offices in the Union at eight o'clock Thursday night. Among the yellowing files of former "Dailies" and the pictures of the Staffs who had produced them, the Office Dragon looked down on the people who are assuming the responsibility of producing the "Daily" during the present session. There are certain rules to guide the conduct of newspapermen and these were passed to the younger and refreshed in the minds of the older members.

The R. V. C. staff arrived in a body, twenty-four strong. The men numbered a score and a half. S. M. E. Read conducted the meeting and called on Bob Ogilvy to speak on the mechanical end of the game. Bob, as Managing Editor has charge of all assignments to reporters and with business with the printers.

In opening his address, the Manager copy to be in the printers' hands by with the printers by which $2,400 will be saved this year. However, by the agreement it is necessary that all the copy be in the printers' hands by midnight. This will permit of proof-reading, which was not always possible last year under the old conditions of copy getting in as late as two and three in the morning.

All write-ups are censored by the Night Editor, who is directly responsible for what goes into the columns on his night.

Stan Read, as Editor-in-Chief, is responsible for the Editorial Policy and for the literary part of the work. He quoted from the late President Harding's rules for the guidance of reporters of the Marion Star. They are what one understands by the best meaning of playing the game.

Miss D. Hay, speaking on behalf of the R. V. C. staff promised some "scorps" for the paper.

Mr. G. H. Fletcher spoke of the Advertising. He said it was easier to get business people interested this year because the students had been backing up the paper and its advertisers.

After this refreshments were served by the Union Cafeteria Staff.

CONCERNING CUSTOMS AND FRESHMEN

That Freshman customs hark back to the days of feudalism—that their counterpart can be found gracing the walls of any penal institution—is probably the most general misconception in the minds of entering men. Frequently when it is too late they discover how far astray they have been wandering. For in the first place Freshman regulations were not devised to mark out the lambs from the sheep; they were primarily established to assist in molding and entering class into a unit certain uniform articles of dress help a Freshman to distinguish his fellow so that he may be drawn closer to him and may with impunity discuss common problems with him. Freshman customs were devised for the good of Freshmen the benefit to be derived from them varies directly with the strictness of their observance.

McGILL SONGS

1—YELL

We're out for gore,
We're out for gore,
We're out for gore,
Keep her low,
Keep her low,
Keep her low,
M—C—G—I—L—L
What's the matter with Old McGill?

She's all right Oh, yes, you bet.

McGill, McGill, McGill,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
McGill

2—HAIL, ALMA MATER.

Hail Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise,
Great our affection, though feeble our lays,
Nothing so peaceful and calm 'neath the hill—
Fondly we love thee, our dear Old McGill.

3—TORONTO

Toronto! Toronto! Toronto!
Varsitce!
We'll shout and fight for the Blue and White and the honor of U. of T.
Ripparty! Rapparty!
Ripparty! Rapparty! Reel!
Toronto! Toronto! Toronto Varsitce!

4—The NEW MCGILL MARCH SONG

We're out to win
For McGill to-day.
Still more fame to grace her name
More honour in the fray.
M—C—G—I—double L.
Chorus—

Watch them fight their way.
They are giving all they have
They are on to stay.
We're back of them fore aye
However goes the fray
Naught can stay the Old Red & White

From winning their game today.
Brain, fame, might and main
All are in the game
For our dear old Alma Mater,
Must not hear of shame.
M—C—G—I—double L.

5—TUNE—PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET

Put on your Red and White Sweater,
For you'll have none better,
And will open up another keg of beer,

For it's not for knowledge
That we came to college,
But to raise H— all the year.

Pledge yourself to ROOT to-day for "Old McGill".

6—TUNE:—TAMMANY

James McGill!
James McGill!
Peacefully he slumbers there,
Blissful though we're on "tear."
James McGill!
James McGill!
He's our father; well, yes, rather,
James McGill!

BRING THIS DAILY TO THE GAME

Some craving.
While the drug habit is the last she would dream of contracting, my flapper wants to know whether it is possible to inject ice-cream.

What Everybody's saying.
"Don't go too near the edge."
"Have the papers come yet?"
"How long are you down for?"
"Do you live in London?"
"This place must have been nice twenty years ago before it became too popular."
"There are those awful people again!"
"I do wish he wouldn't go so far out."

Holiday Dialogue.
First Duetman: "Just been doin' a little shootin'!"
Second Duetman: "You! Wocheer been shootin'?"
First Duetman: "Oh, usual thing, Rubbish."

By One Who Knows.
"Is the Government sound?" asks a headline. Yes, mostly, I should say.
